On November 16, 2016, the parties and Pretrial Services appeared before the Court for a bail review hearing concerning, in part, various gift and prepaid cards seized from defendant Michael Trent and currently in the possession of Pretrial Services. With the consent of the parties and Pretrial Services and for the reasons stated on the record, the Court hereby orders Pretrial Services to provide the gift and prepaid cards to the government for purposes of further investigation. Such further investigation may include opening the cards from their packaging and removing coverings that obstruct the card numbers or pin numbers of the cards, if applicable.
